

The ADISL Narelle Jarrett Bursary Application Form

ADISL Vision

"Under the leadership of Jesus Christ, to be the nation's most effective Christian organisation for equipping women to spread the gospel and for reaching out to those in need."

ADISL Narelle Jarrett Bursary

The aim of the Narelle Jarrett Bursary is to encourage women to further their understanding of the Bible through study at Mary Andrews College. The Bursary is named in honour of Rev. Narelle Jarrett, Archdeacon for Women and former Principal of Mary Andrews College (1985-2007).

Bursaries are made in a prayerful hope that it will add to the recipient's capacity to take their place in the life of the church and serve Christ's Kingdom.

The Bursary covers the cost of study in one diploma subject (currently valued at $980) and is open to current and prospective students of the College.
